W: You're really fit, Scott. Do you exercise a lot?

M: Yes, Susie. I often get up early and swim for half an hour.

W: Wow, do you exercise every day?

M: No, about four times a week. What about you?

W: Well, I usually watch TV and read books in my free time. But I seldom exercise.

M: There are so many couch potatoes nowadays, and that's not good for our health.

W: I really want to be fit. Do you have any suggestions for me?

M: Sure! Get yourself moving.

W: I guess it's really hard for beginners. What should I do then? Follow you?

M: No. You could start with something simple and easy, like running.

W: Good idea.

听下面一段对话，回答 16 至 18 三个小题。

Text 14

M: This is perfect, isn't it?

W: It certainly is. Beautiful view, sunny weather and a week's holiday are ahead of us.

M: Everything is great.

W: And it's so nice that we are all together as a family to enjoy it.

M: We should take a picture to record this special moment.

W: Wait a moment. My hair is a mess. I'll need to brush it.

M: OK. But I didn't bring the camera with me. It's at the hotel.

W: Never mind. Use your phone.

M: That's not the same. Although that's what most people do these days. I want a perfect picture.

W: Then we can take the picture later when we go back.

M: No, I'll run back to the hotel and get the camera. It will only take a few minutes.

W: OK. You don't need to rush.

听下面一段对话，回答 19 至 22 三个小题。

Text 15

W: Ah, I love this! Turn it up!

M: Really? I was afraid it would make you unhappy! Not exactly cheerful, is it?

W: No. But I like it. When I'm upset, I like listening to music that's sad and slow. It makes me feel less alone.

M: I can see that.

W: And the singer has a beautiful voice that could touch the hearts of people. Then the ending of the song is really surprising.

M: Yeah! The lyrics are great. I like songs that have great lyrics best.

W: Usually, I prefer music that's full of power. I can shout out and get all my feelings out!

M: Haha! I should try that when I'm hungry.

W: Interesting! I wish I could write a song as good as this.

M: It is a great song, although maybe not for studying!

W: Ah, we need a break, anyway!

听下面一段独白，回答 23 至 25 三个小题。

Text 16

I can speak a lot of languages. You'll probably guess how many languages I can speak. Eight, in fact, and I am good at six of them--English, French, Chinese, Italian, Spanish and German. I'm Australian. I was born and raised in Sydney. I started learning Chinese at primary school and it quickly became my favorite subject. I loved learning to draw the characters and thought it's a very "musical" language. At high school, I learned Italian. After that, it was easy to pick up Spanish, because the two languages are so similar. Then, as an exchange student, I studied in Germany for two years. Living in the country is one of the best ways to learn a new language, but also one of the scariest! But it didn't put me off keeping learning. Recently, I've started studying Russian and Korean, just for fun!
