Children in China

When spring comes, children want to be outside, so some schools usually organize (组织) a spring trip for them. It could be a trip to a mountain. There, children can climb mountains, fly kites, enjoy flowers and so on. Sometimes their teachers take them to the Martyrs' (烈士) Park. Students can put some flowers on the graves (坟墓).

In April, while the Chinese enjoy winter jasmines (茉莉花), the Japanese are enjoying cherry blossoms (樱花). This is the best time of the year for children to take a trip. They take picnic lunches, sing and dance under the trees.

Children in the UK

They have many great choices (选择) when it comes to the spring trip. They can visit the seaside (海边) or a theme (主题) park. One of the most special (特别的) places to go is the bird center. These children can see ducks and other birds. The people at the center are scientists. This means they can teach children about habitat of the birds. The kids spend time in a beautiful place and also learn something about the natural world there without textbooks.

31. In which section of the newspaper can we read the news?

- A. SCHOOL. B. KIDS. C. CLASS. D. TEACHERS.

32. What do the children in China do when spring comes?

- A. They usually enjoy cherry blossoms. B. They usually go to the bird center.
C. They usually visit the seaside. D. They sometimes go to the Martyrs' Park.

- A. Children in Japan B. A trip to enjoy cherry
C. Take picnic lunches D. Sing and dance under the trees

34. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. No schools in China organize a school trip.
B. In Japan, August is the best time for children to take a trip.
C. In the UK, the people at the bird center are scientists.
D. Kids in the UK can learn nothing about the nature without textbooks.

35. All the news above is about _____.

- A. Kids in different countries B. Spring trips
C. Holidays D. Different cultures in the world

I had a summer camp with my classmates last year.

Early in the morning, we gathered (集合) at the bus station. After saying goodbye to our parents, we got on the buses. It took us more than two hours to arrive at the campground.

We got off the buses happily, laughing and shouting. We jumped and ran all over the place. It was the first time for us to be away from the parents. Some of us started to feel homesick. However, when the night party and dances began, the homesick was gone.

The next day, everybody rushed to the boating class, hoping to be at the head of the others. At first, my friends and I worked hard, but the boat wouldn't listen to us and kept going round and round. Then the teacher taught us how to work together. After many tries, we did much better.

Swimming class was my favorite. It was about the hottest time of a day and the best time to stay in the cool water. The swimming teacher was a funny man, and during the class he often made us laugh happily.

During the week, I learned a lot and made many new friends. I also learned how to take care of myself.

36. It took them _____ to arrive at the campground.

- A. more than 1 hour B. over 2 hours C. half of 2 hours D. less than 2 hours

37. Why did the writer like swimming class best?

- A. Because it was good to stay in the cool water on hot weather.
B. Because the writer felt quite relaxed during the class.
C. Because the swimming teacher was interesting
D. Because of all the above.

38. According to the passage, the underlined word "homesick" means _____.

C. On the Campground D. I Learned a lot

Ivan searched through his bedroom for his shoes. Oh, they were at the back of the door, covered in mud (烂泥). Now he remembered he had taken out Buster, the dog, last night. It was muddy in the yard. He couldn't wear muddy shoes to school, but he didn't have any others.

He got a washcloth and wiped the mud off his shoes. Then he ran out of the door and toward the bus stop.

On the bus, Ivan sat alone. Other kids sat around him, laughing and smiling, but no one talked with him. At school, he found his place and sat there quietly.

In class, Mr. Henderson smiled at him. “Morning, Ivan. I’m happy to see you today. I read your book report, and I really enjoy it. You have a special way with words.”

Ivan looked in surprise at Mr. Henderson. He slowly smiled. “Thanks, Mr. Henderson. I really like that book.”

“Good,” said Mr. Henderson. “There are more books like that. I’ll show you after class.”

Ivan waited excitedly all through class. He didn’t think about his muddy shoes or his empty stomach. All he thought about was reading more books. He really liked books, but he didn’t have any at home. When class ended, Mr. Henderson showed Ivan many books in the corner of a room. Ivan looked uncertainly at his teacher. “I can read all of them?”

“Yes, of course, but take one at a time.” He said.

Ivan smiled. His bad day got better. “Thanks, Mr. Henderson. I can hardly wait.”

41. From the passage we know Mr. Henderson was _____ Ivan.

- A. kind to B. strict with C. worried about D. interested in

42. According to the passage, which of the following is TRUE?

- A. There was a lot of money in Ivan’s home.
B. All teachers and students in the school liked Ivan.
C. Ivan was more interested in books than other things.
D. Every morning, Ivan had to wipe the mud on his shoes.

43. In which order did the boy’s feeling change in the story?

- A. Worried →happy →excited →surprised. B. Worried →surprised →excited →happy.
C. Surprised →worried →excited →happy. D. Surprised →happy →worried →excited.

44. Why did Ivan smile at last?

- A. He didn’t have to wipe the shoes any more. B. He could read many books at a time.
